

English			Maths
A Christmas Carol has been reproduced in books and films since it was published in 1843. How many can you find? Write a film review that encourages others to watch your favorite version. 	Reading an article from a newspaper or an online article is a good way to keep up to speed with what's happening in the world. Set yourself a challenge to read at least two times a week. 	If you have a hobby or interest, we'd love to hear about it. Being able to talk clearly in front of others is a key skill. Do you think you would be able to discuss your hobby in detail or answer questions about it?	Knowing the four operations (+-x÷) and how to use them is an important step to problem solving. Practice using them. You can use them to find an answer and check it! 	Online Learning Complete some online learning work on Numbots or Prodigy Maths. 	Key Skill Practice telling the time to the nearest five minutes. Can you use an analogue and a digital clock?
Online Learning Complete some online learning work- Lexia or Prodigy English. 	Vocabulary Use a dictionary to find definition of any new words you encounter when you are reading. 	Background reading is a great way to find out more about the era in which our key text is set. Ask your teacher for more reading inspiration. 	Life Skills Plan a day trip – what time will you need to leave? What date will it be on? Where will you go? How long will the journey take? Do you need to work out how much the trip will cost? Think about travel, food, activities etc. 	Key Skills Use coins to pay in a shop. Have you got the correct coins and notes? Or will you need to check that you are given the correct amount of change?
Humanities			Social Skills & Life Skills
Can you find out about our British coastline? Does it remain the same or does it change overtime? Can you present your findings in a fact file? You may want to look at a particular place. 	Can you find out what kinds of industry grow around our coastlines? Tourism is a big one, create a poster advertising your favourite seaside spot. 	Plan a family meal- what will you make? Could you help prepare a shopping list and shop for what you need. Can you change a plan to include healthy alternatives? 	At Grange we always celebrate the Harvest festival- How can we help others at this time? Is there something we can do as a class to help others? 	Check the laundry instructions on your clothes before doing your own load of washing.
There are lots of similarities between Christian and Islamic beliefs, can you find out what these are? 	Find out more about the features of our British coastline, these include- cliffs, caves, arches, stacks, and sandy beaches. Create PowerPoint to demonstrate what you have found. 	Join a club. Clubs are a great way to share time and interests with old friends and new. You might like to try Youth club, fitness club or ceramics. 	Find an opportunity to play a board game with a friend or a relative. 	Ensure that you shower every day and use deodorant. 	